

What is a walking Food & Cultural Tour?

Food Tour

(Food Tour), noun pl.

- a) A unique and memorable culinary tasting experience through a delicious and historic neighborhood, often while walking with a guide; for locals and visitors.
- b) A food and cultural journey, usually taken for pleasure, visiting places of interest along a specific route
- c) The art of walking, tasting, and discovering.

Roanoke's Historic Downtown Food Tours

Our Historic Downtown Roanoke food tasting and cultural walking tours combine delicious food with tales of downtown Roanoke's colorful history. But mostly – we serve joy and fun on every tour!

These walking food tours provide a unique opportunity for locals and visitors alike to experience unique and one-of-a-kind culinary treasures that help illustrate the history and culture of the "Magic City." It's also a great way for groups and guests to casually bond and enjoy.

Downtown Roanoke is full of history, charm and culinary artisans. We'll walk and taste our way through colorful downtown, stopping at iconic restaurants and eateries along the way. Delicious, fun and memorable. All food and drink tastings, enough for an ample meal are included on the tour.

Find delicious culinary surprises on one of our Roanoke Food & Cultural Tours.
(a list of some of our partner venues)

Hotel Roanoke – Fine dining with a distinctive French cuisine.
Voted one of the "Top Historic Hotels" in the U.S. (est. 1882)

Cedars Lebanese Restaurant – Authentic Lebanese cuisine.
Celebrate the immense Lebanese impact in the Roanoke's food culture. (est. 2013)

Billy's – Iconic restaurant with just the right mix of upscale and casual, in the heart of Roanoke history (est. 1979).

Wall Street Tavern – A gastropub with a "new American" menu.
Located on an historic corner in the historic City Market (est.
2015).

Texas Tavern – An iconic eatery with a limited menu, but a long history of unlimited legend. On Southern Living magazines' list of "100 Places to Eat Now." (est. 1930)

Eli's Provisions – It's all about local Virginia food and beverage at this store right on one of the oldest farmers markets in the U.S.
(est. 2015).

chocolatepaper – Chocolates from around the world and just around the corner, but so much more (est. 2006).

Alejandro's – Authentic "West Coast Style" Mexican Grill featuring California Fusion Cuisine (est. 2007).

Metro! – Refined cuisine in a stylish metropolitan atmosphere
(est. 2003).

The Quarter – Inspired by a love for New Orleans serving authentic Cajun recipes. You'll think you're in the French Quarter.
(est. 2012)

The Candy Store – An intoxicating store filled with novelty, regional, specialty and vintage candy & chocolate. It's just a delightful place. (est. 2012)